

What's New in SMART Board™ Software 9.7 (SP2)

Applies to: SMART Board™ software 9.7 (SP2) and Mac OS X 10.5 Leopard operating system software

Overview

SMART Board software 9.7 (SP2) includes improved reliability and performance on Mac OS X 10.5 Leopard operating system software.

Details

The following issues that apply to SMART Board software 9.7 and 9.7 (SP1) and Mac OS X Leopard operating system software are resolved in SMART Board Software 9.7 \(SP2\).

- If you attempt to select, manipulate or control Flash® file and Flash video file objects in a Notebook™ page in Full Screen view, the objects disappear.
- The Start Center doesn't display correctly.
- The SMART Keyboard doesn't display options for changing the keyboard style, customizing the settings and accessing the online Help system unless you press the upper left corner of the SMART Keyboard.
- If you close a Notebook file by pressing the interactive whiteboard, the Notebook file may retain the focus under certain circumstances and can prevent you from selecting other items on the desktop. This doesn't occur if you close the file using a mouse.

NOTE: There are other circumstances in which the Notebook file can incorrectly retain focus.

- If you print a Notebook file, the print-out sometimes omits the first page.
- The Gallery's Check for Updates command isn't available.
- The installation of SMART Board software 9.7 or 9.7 (SP1) sometimes stops during the installation of the Gallery.
- Notebook software closes unexpectedly.
