

Senteo™ Assessment Software 2.0

About these Release Notes

In Senteo™ assessment software 2.0, you can create, deliver, manage and evaluate assessments. You can assign different point values to individual questions and tag student names and assessment questions with keywords.

Senteo Teacher replaces Senteo Manager. Now you can view and manage all your assessment data from one location. After you quiz students, the Senteo Teacher Gradebook gives you quick access to assessment results, making it easy to prepare reports on student and class progress.

Known Issues in Senteo Assessment Software 2.0

- Some questions that you download from SMART's Educator resources are a series of instant questions, which means that the Senteo Teacher Gradebook does not record the results. But when you insert a title page before the first question, the instant questions become a question set, and the Senteo Teacher Gradebook records the results.
- When you export student reports as .csv or .html files, you aren't prompted for confirmation, but when you give a file the same name as an existing file, you can overwrite it.
- When you save reports to a folder that you don't have write access to, Senteo assessment software 2.0 prompts you to install Senteo.
- When a teacher runs an anonymous quiz with the After each question is answered option selected and a student logs out and back in during the quiz, the Passed and Who are we waiting for? counts may be inaccurate.
- When you assign different point values to questions in Senteo assessment software 2.0, Senteo Teacher shows the point values you assigned but the clicker shows a point value of 1 for all questions. The grades in Senteo Teacher are correct.
